

The background is a dark, expressive painting. It features a central figure, possibly a person or a creature, standing on a jagged, dark rock formation. The figure is silhouetted against a bright, glowing light source, which creates a strong contrast. The sky is filled with swirling, turbulent clouds in shades of blue, white, and yellow, suggesting a storm or a dramatic celestial event. The overall style is painterly and atmospheric, with visible brushstrokes and a sense of movement.
